

Bellevue Alber, No. 48, meets in Hotel Hall 890 Victoria St., every Tuesday at 8 p.m. Visiting brethren welcome.

B.C. GOLF, N.O. A. MOHSEY, E.S.

J. WHILLER

CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

Estimates given on all kinds of work.

Lumber for sale. Houses to rent.

Prompt Attention and Good Workmanship Guaranteed.

J. WHILLER

Frank - Alta

S. TRONO

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry

REPAIRING OF ALL KINDS

promptly attended to

First Glass Work Guaranteed

Victoria Street

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

McKenzie & Jackson

Barbers, Notaries, etc.

Stenographers Block

MALCOLM McKEEN LUCILLE A. JACKSON

MacLeod PHONE 41 Alberta

VICTOR LEMIEUX

BARBER

Union Prices, First Class Work

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

Furniture

IRON BEDS

BUREAUS

WASHSTANDS

Prices Way Down

J. MONTALBETTI

MAIN STREET

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

Good Home Made

Bread, Cakes, Pies

Etc. Etc. Etc.

Shops for Families

Supplied Daily

J. Holloway

Phone 150

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

L. H. Putnam

Barber, Solicitor and Notary Public, and a few reliable life Ins. Accident, and Fire Guards.

Money loaned on good security.

Branch offices at Coleman and Stanley.

Phone 107 BLAIRMOLE Alberta

Forty years in use, 20 years the standard, prescribed and recommended by physicians. Fox Woman's Atheneum, Dr. Martel's Female Pill at your druggist.

For Sale

At Passburg, a Pool Room

and Barber Shop, Lot,

Stable and contents, all in first-class condition, will be sold at a bargain

as owner wants to leave country in early spring, if possible.

For full particulars apply to

F. N. FOWLER

BOX 3 PASSBURG, ALBERTA

THE BELLEVUE TIMES

Office of Publication
Blairmore, Alberta.

Subscriptions to all parts of the Dominion

$2.50 per year, postage extra, postpaid.

Payable in advances.

Business local, 15c. per line.

Legal notices 1c. per line for first insertion;

10c. per line for each subsequent insertion.

Display Advertising Rates on Application.

W. J. BARLETT, Proprietor.

Bellevue Alber, Fri, March 14, 1913

Coleman Bites The Bun

W. H. Murr and W. F. Stanley

were authorized by the Coleman hockey club to bring back the cups and medals with them on Wednesday afternoon. These well-known and merited contestants witnessed the game by the Cole man team in the evening of the preceding day, but were not invited to the ball. Such a display of kitchen crockery and refuse referred to! An immense crowd assembled at the Coleman hotel, where the cheering strains from the Coleman 30-piece orchestra, seem to have raised the building.

After a few welcoming words Editor Stanley undertook to make the presentation, and his speech was such as would have left even Mike Rose in the shade.

The cup (an earthen one) was placed far more space in the office of the hotel than necessary. After the presentation speech, Mr. Murr the proprietor, with his customary hospitality, offered to fill the cup and treat the boys, wherein on all the disciples of boozey reported to the bar to await the appearance of the cup on the scene. Soon arrived the cup supported by Meers Rose and Morino, and true to his word, Mr. Murr imme diately had the receptacle overflowing with upwards of a pint of the liquid that makes Alberta famous. The medals were a good substitute for the real art articles, being made of upper leather and very nicely engraved with an etched punch, and would have been a fitting trophy for the work done by the Sherman on their re cent visit to the Crows' Nest Pass, but could not afford to buy the splendid showing of the Coleman hockeyteam in the season. Now the Coleman boys are asking that they are the winners of the Fray or Cup and Medals for 1913, and are using the old earthware and leather until such time as the solid goods can be formally presented

Questioned by chief Irwin as to the strength of the wine, a Chinaman from behind suggested that he try it for himself—the proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof.

Judgment was reserved until Saturday next at 10 o'clock.

Mah Sing Before The Docket

On Saturday night last the Chinese joint on Victoria Street occupied by Mah Sing was raided

by town chief Irwin and Corporal

Meade of the R. N. W. M. P., in the hope of securing evidence that might lead up to a charge for keeping opium, gambling or dis tributing liquors. In Mah-Sing's bedroom upstairs they found two cases of Chinese wine and two cases of similar ware, a cell and another part of the joint, all of which were confiscated and brought to the cold storage depart ment of the Royal North-West

Mounted Police barracks, where the array rested as a temptation to a large number of parched throats on Monday forenoon.

The depositions of chief Irwin and Corporal Meade were taken before

Judge Pinkney, which brought forth the fact that there was more booze found on the premises than a Chinaman could swallow in one day and not be a menace to the white race of Blairmore, that empty bottles held like dead soldiers from Mexican mutilating around the vegetable gar den at the back of the joint, and that a pretty fair idea of how a bar should be conducted and furnished was had from a room which contained a counter and shelves and had as a means of access or egress a hole in the wall slightly above the waistline line. They found no gambling or opium outfit, but thought that the five cases of booze was sufficient to satisfy the magistrate.

(we mean as grounds for conviction.)

The statement of Mah Sing was questioned. Questioned by Coffe McLean, he said he had the case of Chinese liquor in question on his premises and that they were confiscated by the police on Saturday last. I was not there at the time, but I heard that the police got it for the Chinese who had arrived Friday from Vancouver. He never sold any liquor, and would not sell any more, but had

Chinese merchandise, such as soaps and oils, and dried fish and other articles. He never sold any Chinese liquor, but he did sell

Chinese beer, which he sold to the Chinese who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese

who worked in the mine, and he sold it to the Chinese who worked in

THE TIMES, BELLEVUE, ALBERTA.

THE OPPRESSOR.

THIS fellow at my house has half the time
I want to sleep, just now. Just now, it sort of gives 'em horrors, and they think it's just now, when makes 'em as evil as—
Then I wake 'em, sometimes, an' half the time it's me.

I don't because I wet my feet that gives them "toss'r rumble" sound that keeps me thinking.
"It's cause I washed so much.
It's cause I'm so tired, and they're so guilty, but I hope
The next time you ever see me, we will still be so good.

I tell you, very often when my hands was clean and when I was clean, I used to wash 'em cause it did no good to fight.

With all the time I have in the bath it was plain enough to see The water makes the water dirty as could be.

If folks would give me half a chance with what didn't I eat?

I don't know where to find 'em naturally now.

I'd like to have leave of havin' colds
as such, I know;

And in one case, I'm afraid about the water that show.

—George Johnson in Everybody's Magazine.

What He Wanted.

Mr. Pounds, the retired grocer, was very proud of his new country estate.
He planned no expense in doing things weekends, and he had a rake of rocks began building a nest in his park.

But the farmer who owned the next house was not pleased. In fact, he disliked rocks.

So he gave his sons orders to shoot the rocks.

Along comes Mr. Pounds, enraged.

"See here, my man," he said fiercely,
"with those kinds of words would let me know what you're trying to make a rookery, and—"

"That's all right, sir," replied the farmer. "I'll make you a rock stone you can use when you cross stones.
I'm trying to make a living."

—Hartford Times.

The Husband of Venus.

Mrs. H. F. has three treasures in her house.

One of these treasures is a new servant girl who is just exactly like a new brun.

The other two are statuettes—silver-plated reproductions of the Venus of Milo and the Apollo Belo-mer.

Enter the new servant with a new
brun.

"What?" shrieked Mrs. H. F., in an indignant voice. "You're going to charge me 5 shillings for that poky little room I had last night? It's absurd!"

"Oh, dear! The Venus?"

"No, ma'am," Mrs. H. F. said before leaping down. "—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—Hartford Times.

To Defeat Winter Ills

START NOW

Susceptibility to colds, sore throats, tonsillitis and such; indicate impoverished vitality—lack of reserve strength to weather changing seasons.

A quick and SCOTTS EMULSION is the panacea for all these ills. It is healthy body lotion, like a small match kindles a great fire—and more: it makes rich, healthy, active skin; tones tissues and stimulates the appetite; makes sound body-strength.

SCOTTS EMULSION is the panacea for all these ills. It is healthy body lotion, like a small match kindles a great fire—and more: it makes rich, healthy, active skin; tones tissues and stimulates the appetite; makes sound body-strength.

"We did telephone about the ad, and have the matter under consideration. But we can't say anything definite at this time. A statement may be issued in a few days."

"What would be our court action?" he was asked.

"There may be. We haven't quite decided what course to give you further information just now."—New York Globe and Commercial Advertiser.

Reject invitations they are impudent for profit.

Scott & Sons, Toronto, Ontario. 12-28

He Lacked the Agility
When Louis Cyr, the famous strong man, had the tall fair-weather aristocrat base his attack on his appearance in Bruce County, around Oroton, he grandly retorted: "I am as young as ever." On one occasion he was performing at the Kincardine Fair, and a tall, gaunt, thin, wiry youth with the canny reserve characteristic of the race. After the big feature act, the young man, a teen boy, burst uninvited onto the platform and weighed in the neighbor's pocketbook. The target of the two Rotacons observed by his companion: "Yon's a strong man. Stands well on his feet, too. He's a wiry, trim, dried-up variety of transplanted Highlander, weighing about one hundred and twenty pounds, but he's not here to show his strength that I had."

When a mother detects from the white of her child's eye that worms are troubling it, she can procure no better remedy than Miller's Worm Salve. It quickly and safely expels worms from the system. They may cause vomiting, but this is only a temporary effect, but manifestation of their thorough work. No worms can last where these Powers are used.

A Strong Start
In Ottawa, the capital of a little state story about the start of Sir George Brown's political career, the Liberals in the Senate—aged 16—had a generation ago.

It was in 1850 that Sir George found it necessary to borrow his campaign funds in his first political battle from a wealthy Liberal member of parliament, yet such is the fact.

Sir George, of course, was then a pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. Fortynight I had a tumor in my breast. The doctor said the tumor was cancerous and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. I had been told to buy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I did. I am well and healthy now. For months I suffered from inflammation and you can't imagine what your medicine has done for me. You don't use my name, but I will be glad to answer letters,"—Mrs. MERRISTON REED, 105 Mount St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham Avoided Operation

Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have succumbed but for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am well and healthy now. For months I suffered from inflammation and you can't imagine what your medicine has done for me. You don't use my name, but I will be glad to answer letters,"—Mrs. MERRISTON REED, 105 Mount St., Peoria, Ill.

"Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I bought it for two months. I was well within a week. I wrote to Lydia E. Pinkham, Jessup, Pa. Women who suffer from female ills should use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation."

W. N. U. 226

TURKS THREATEN TO SUE POSTUM CO.

The Turkish consulate in this city is indicating that if it becomes known that the Postum people have been called "the most nervous people in the world," or because the statement has been made that "Postum is the best coffee drinker in the world," is not clear, because the Turkish consul will not say whether or not these Turkish people have been libeled, or nearly so.

The whole trouble came about because of an advertisement of the Postum people in which the statement already mentioned was printed, and it was added:

"Get Postum. 'We are not quite sure we could help them,' said instant Postum helps lots of people."

The Turkish consul's office called several newsmen offices on the phone and said that the statement was "Silly, ridiculous, and threatening to bring suit in the courts."

The Postum office is at 55 Liberty street, a main connected with the office, and who acted for the consul, and who acted for the consul.

"We did telephone about the ad, and have the matter under consideration. But we can't say anything definite at this time. A statement may be issued in a few days."

"What would be our court action?" he was asked.

"There may be. We haven't quite decided what course to give you further information just now."—New York Globe and Commercial Advertiser.

Reject invitations they are impudent for profit.

Scott & Sons, Toronto, Ontario. 12-28

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS
Your druggist will refund money if case of Itching, Blister Bleeding or Pruritus lasting 6 to 14 days. See

Good Evidence
Do you really think that your sister is making such a match with the baron?

Judges the great number of anonymous letters addressed to her should say something.

Minard's Liniment Cures Gout in Cows

Up-to-Date
Father—So, does this young lady you're going to marry know how to take care of herself?—Mother—Yes.

Son—Certainly not. I'm proud of myself, she only knows how to make a spare tire, fix a bicycle, read a taximeter.

ALL CAME FROM THE SAME CAUSE

WHY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED MINE. DUFALUT'S ILLS

She Had Diabetes, Sciatica, Backache and Headache but Found Speedy Relief in the Great Canadian Kidney Pill.

Mr. St. Boniface. (Special).—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the election.

Mr. St. Boniface.—After suffering for three years from a complicated disease, I was advised to go to the hospital of St. Victor's in Paris, this city, once known for its wonderful kidney pills.

Sir George, of course, was then still pliant, young, well-educated, well-born friend of the Conservative candidate in the riding, a Stratford banker named John Galt, who had given him a loan of several hundred dollars from the oldish Tory candidate to carry him through the election.

As fortune of war would have it, he went out Johnson with the aid of Johnson.

It was with a smile that Mr. Ross paid off the banker-candidate after the Advertising is a Modern Force in Business

Happenings in and Around Blairmore

Alex. Thompson, of Cowley, was in town on Monday.

Miss Latta, of Cowley, paid Blairmore a visit this week.

J. W. Graham returned from England on Monday last.

James Haddad, of Fernie, was in town last week end.

S. Trono has his jewelry store considerably enlarged.

Don't be out of fashion. Even Kelly has taken to crutches.

D. C. Durn is now nursing his hand, imagining it is something else.

Contractor Palmer has this week resumed moving operations at Frank.

Hilda Ryan came up from Lethbridge Saturday to spend Sunday with friends.

Alex. Cameron, of Coleman, visited the Metropolis on Sunday last, the guest of

See the windows of the Blairmore Hardware Store for seasonal displays.

Don't forget the big masquerade ball at the opera house on Monday, the 17th of Ireland.

There will be a special meeting of Crows' Nest Encampment on Wednesday night next.

W. L. Quimette, mayor of Coleman, was in the Metropolis on Wednesday afternoon.

W. F. Stanley, editor of the Coleman Bulletin, was in town on Wednesday afternoon.

The Rex Vandelle Co. appeared at the Blairmore opera house on Wednesday night.

The Shamrock Club has been disorganized. The members are now open for engagements.

Miss Baker, who has been visiting friends at Lethbridge, will return to Blairmore this week end.

According to the February number of the Alberta Gazette, not too many have struck oil in Alberta.

See the great display of dainty fruits in the windows of the Alberta Trading Company's store.

Mr. Shaw, who recently moved to Blairmore, purposes erecting eight cottages on the Pelletier addition.

Fire did $2,000 worth of damage to the Summit Lime Works at Crows' Nest on Saturday night.

A liberal meeting was held in Blairmore on Wednesday afternoon, when the local branch was reorganized.

A. W. Robbins, is the local agent for the Ford Motor car, without exception the best all-round car in use.

E. Disney, A. Cameron, W. H. Mart and Dr. Porter, of Coleman, were guests at the Cosmopolitan on Wednesday evening.

The crew of Edson last week suffered a $150,000 fire, which practically wiped out the business section of the town.

A meeting of all interested in senior football will be held on Monday night at the sample room of the Blairmore Hotel.

Colin Macdonald is to town on Monday to defend Mar Sing, who appeared before Coronor Pinkney on a charge of selling liquor.

Christian Ernst, brewer, had the misfortune to slip on the ice near his house on Saturday, breaking a bone in his right arm.

Wellington Loyal Orange Lodge No. 2224 intend holding their first annual ball at the opera house on Wednesday, April 21st, and a big time is anticipated.

Mr. W. Howe, who has been laid up with rheumatism for about seven months, is able to be about on crutches.

J. F. Hunter was installed as customs officer for Blairmore on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Roberts is retained as assistant.

H. B. Graham, of Calgary customs inspector, arrived in Blairmore on Monday to install J. F. Hunter into the local office.

C. J. Pegg, the manager of the Rocky Mountain Cement plant, will not leave Blairmore for McBride before some time in May or June.

Buggies were brought into commission on Sunday and large numbers availed of the warm weather and dry streets for a drive.

The Blairmore Liquor Company have applied for the right to change its business name to The Family Liquor Supply Company Limited.

The foundation for Robert Smalls' residence and blacksmith shop was laid on Monday. The work of construction is in the hands of contractor Sinclair.

Meet railway fares, bill bills and other little accounts that are accruing a young gentleman of Blairmore has been obliged to dispose of his watch and ring. All will start at 5 o'clock sharp. All welcome.

M. M. Gillis, a liberal organizer, was in Blairmore last week taking in the political situation generally and incidentally taking pointers from Mike Rose and Bill Beard.

The board of managers of the Presbyterian church have been very busy during the past week and have the plans for the new church and manse about completed.

Henry Petiot, the juniorbrite of the "Enterprise," had the misfortune to tread on his foot on Monday last. He has quit wearing his niggardly smile for a week or so.

The Encampment degree team from Edmonton and Calgary is expected to arrive in Blairmore early Friday morning, and Crows' Nest Encampment is making high preparations for the team's reception.

An item in our last week's paper made to read that Mr. Fraser had sold his interest in the Blairmore Liquor Store. Such report was incorrect, as Mr. Fraser is still a large shareholder in the Company and managing director.

The centenary of the birth of David Livingstone, the great explorer and missionary to Africa, is observed at the Provincial Sunday school next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Munro will give an address. Growth-ups are invited.

The council chamber has undergone a considerable renovation and is now fit for the accommodation of the wives of the ratepayers, who of late have had to remain home with their elbows on the window shelf till late hours waiting for hubby to come home.

Meese, Freiburger and Trono are kept busy these days selling Blairmore town lots. They report business exceptionally good, and many people who wish to invest their savings where they are taking advantage of the low price asked for property in the best location in this growing town, and are buying lots from Freiburger and Trono.

The first carful of Ford cars came to A. W. Robbins, the local agent, this week. Looks as though everyone is going to drive themselves to a car.

Wellington Loyal Orange Lodge No. 2224 intend holding their first annual ball at the opera house on Wednesday, April 21st, and a big time is anticipated.

Through an error on the part of our compositors, the date of the I. O. A. Ball appears as Tuesday April 20th, and should have read Wednesday, April 21st.

The first carful of Ford cars came to A. W. Robbins, the local agent, this week. Looks as though everyone is going to drive themselves to a car.

Misses Shepherd and Latichoff, their spring millinery opening today.

James N. McDonald Died on Street

Calgary, March 10.—James Norman MacDonald, veteran newspaperman of the west, dropped dead on the street this evening. He was born in Listowel, Ont., about fifty years ago, and came to Canada in 1885. He was the founder of the Moose Jaw Times, was for a number of years associated with the Regina Leader, resided in Lethbridge for a time, editing the News, and was for many years connected with the Morning Albertan.

Mr. McDonald probably knew more "old-timers" than any other western newspaper man. He was an ardent countryman, and was connected with some of the best families in the Listowel district.

Mrs. Kidd's maternity home has 95, Pow 151.

FOR SALE CHEAP—One Peerless Lubricator and Brander, Phone 57 or apply Blawood Ranch, Frank.

A concert and social will be held in the Central Baptist Church on Easter Monday night, March 24th. The programme will be delivered by the children, but several adults will take part. A collection will be taken in aid of the Hugh-Lind Franklin Orphans who are served at the Finch. Concert will start at 8 o'clock sharp. All welcome.

Nine Lives Lost

A Blairmore girl fell fifteen feet the other day and escaped uninjured. She sat on a chair and crushed out its nine lives at one stroke.

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but in what he has done. This is the only true test. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. People everywhere speak of it as the highest terms of praise. For sale by all dealers.

Ye Know Not What They Do.

We are told that a meeting of representatives of all political parties was held at L. H. Purdon's residence a few nights ago.

As the office was too conspicuous, they thought wise to wander down the by-ways and secluded alleys towards the residence which is clothed in evergreens. We have not found out what transpired at that meeting, but noticed some of the party strolling home at midnight.

Many surfaces from chamberlain have been surprised and delighted by the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment.

No case of Rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.

Hillcrest

We are glad to be able to state with authority that Hillcrest is this year playing in the Crows' Nest Pass football league, which is admittedly the best league in the Pass. The general feeling in town was that it would be absurd to enter into a league similar to that in which it was entered last year, for even then on account of the marked superiority of the Hillcrest boys the schedule of games was not more than half played through. We'd like very much to see Burmis butt in on this league as well, for if there is one thing we do enjoy more than another it is to see the Burmis bunch trying to live up to the angry principles they attribute to the "Noble Five." We know it's an old tale, but we really could help mentioning this fact. Ondesorry for a down-and-dirty and Burmis has our deep and heartfelt sympathy.

The football club are in high spirits at the present time and things seem to be coming their way. They are very well equipped for their coming fight for the Crows' Nest trophy, and fully realize that playing such teams as the Belvoir, Ferme, Hosmer and the others comprising this league is likely to be very difficult.

They are to meet up with the Burmis bunch this Saturday evening.

They have no doubt as to their ultimate success, however, and there is no reason why the boys have fine up just now

Happenings in and Around Bellevue

Alf Buddin, the Socialist organizer, was in Bellevue last week.

Arthur Shearer and family have moved to Bellevue.

Sam Stone has been laid up for a few days, but is around again.

John R. MacDonald visited Lethbridge on Sunday.

Inspector Aspinwall was in Bellevue this week inspecting the mine.

Mrs. Albert Hallsworth returned to town from Royal View on Tuesday.

The local athletic association will hold a track meet on the 21st.

Bob Levitt represented the local athletic association at the football meeting at Fernie this week.

A. W. Robbins of Blairmore is the local agent for the Ford Motor cars, without exception the best road car in use.

The Bellevue brass band was reorganized on Sunday morning.

G. W. Goodwin was re-elected bandmaster, Wallace Raynor secretary-treasurer, and Fred Chapman and John Brooks were appointed auditors.

The coming season looks brighter than ever in its prospects for the band. Practice will commence in the church next Sunday morning and each succeeding Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Don't forget the grand Sunday school anniversary to be held in the church on Sunday and Monday next. Two big services will be held on Sunday. At 2:30 in the afternoon a big Sunday school rally will be held; the children will do all the singing and figure largely in the programme. On Sunday evening there will also be a big children's choir.

On Monday night the children will give a concert and will be treated to some of the sweet things of life. Special collections will be taken on all occasions in aid of the Sunday school work.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and cough. It's a dependable drug.

Mr. Morrow has got in well acquainted in Hillcrest during the few months he was here and all are very sorry to see him leave.

Mr. Danai, his successor, arrived in Hillcrest Saturday, the 8th inst. from Vancouver.

should not show the whole Pass the way we go at things in Hillcrest.

The work of putting the new field into shape will be commenced just as soon as Jack Frost leaves for his summer quarters.

the new uniforms of blue and white have already been ordered from Vowl, country and by the middle of April everything will be just so. Then just watch the blue and white do budge.

At present the tennis courts in Hillcrest are in a deplorable shape.

and if there is to be any play on them this season it is time something was arranged to fix them up a little. Last season, it was impossible to invite teams from the neighboring towns over for a game and this year the situation bids fair to be worse than ever.

James Morrow, C. F. R. assayer at Hillcrest mine, left town on Tuesday evening for Winnipeg, where he has been offered the position of chemist in that city's pure food investigation department.

Mr. Morrow has got in well acquainted in Hillcrest during the few months he was here and all are very sorry to see him leave.

Mr. Danai, his successor, arrived in Hillcrest Saturday, the 8th inst. from Vancouver.

We Don't Wait FOR PURCHASERS

We go out and Find Them

If you have property at Calgary, Lethbridge, Macleod, Vancouver, at home, or elsewhere, that you desire to enlist for sale, write or see us at once.

J. M. CARTER
REAL ESTATE AGENT
Blairmore, - Alberta.

MILLINERY

MISSSES LEES

Hold their SPRING MILLINERY OPENING

Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15

Parlors — Victoria Street, Blairmore

THE INTERNATIONAL Coal and Coke Company, Ltd.

Operates the

DENISON COLLIERIES AT COLEMAN, ALBERTA.

Mines High Grade Steam and Coking Coal.

Manufacturers of the Best Coke on the Market.

MAKE MONEY EASY

If you would do so in your town lots in the most substantially founded and best business community in the Crows' Nest Pass.

THAT PLACE IS COLEMAN.

THE INTERNATIONAL Coal and Coke Company, Ltd.

At Coleman, Alberta.

The Passburg Hotel

T. H. Duncan, Prop.

Bright, Clean Wholesome Rooms

The Bar is well stocked with the Finest Wines, Liqueurs and Imported and Domestic Cigars